What is a “woman of distinction?” Is it a woman making extraordinary contributions to society and health? Is it a woman making sustained or unique efforts to improve the community? Should the Go Red For Women “Woman of Distinction” recipient be someone that serves as a role model to women and promotes a healthy lifestyle among women? Those questions, and the larger question of “what is a woman of distinction,” are answered each year at the award-winning and record-setting American Heart Association Garden State Go Red For Women Luncheon.

The American Heart Association Garden State Go Red For Women “Woman of Distinction” Awards have been presented for six straight years (2007-2012), since their inception, by Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield of New Jersey. To obtain a nomination packet for the 2013 American Heart Association Garden State Go Red For Women “Woman of Distinction” Award, contact June A. Mahon, Regional Director, Garden State Go Red For Women Luncheon, at the American Heart Association at (609) 223-3727 or at june.mahon@heart.org.

shout louder, stand stronger, demand change

We're in our 10th year of fighting heart disease and stroke in women, but the fight is far from over.

Women, it's time to stand together in the fight for our lives. Because heart disease and stroke are our No. 1 and No. 4 killers, affecting more women than men. Because heart disease is more deadly than all forms of cancer combined. Because more than 60 percent of all stroke deaths are women. Because women we love are dying and many more are impacted every day.

It's time to come together. Now is the time. Join us as we begin our 10th Anniversary of Go Red For Women on February 1, 2013. Attend the 2013 Garden State Go Red For Women Luncheon. Together, we can end heart disease and stroke in our lifetime.
